DS YACHTS IN THE PRESS

A charter in a niche of its own
When you are chartering a yacht around the 100,000 euros per week mark, you're either going to get an older boat that might be close to 30 or 40 meters long, but nowhere near Freedom's 48 meters".

Ocean Air Media

A smaller boat in that price range is also unlikely to have a cinema, massage room and all the water toys superyacht charter guests want.

CNN

Coolets is determined to continue elevating the Adriatic nation's standing on the superyacht map.

Forbes

It's a superyacht-worthy reception, Freedom isn't your typical superyacht. With 11 cabins for 22 guests, the 2023 charter fee starts at €100,000 (£85,580) per week or under €5,000 per person, excluding extras, which is far more economical than your typical 50-metre superyacht.

Boat International

Freedom is not your typical charter yacht. Fresh from a 2022 refit, the boat offers a beguiling slice of superyacht life at a fraction of the usual cost. Freedom does cost virtually half what a similarly sized superyacht usually would.
